MEDIA ADVISORY

TED DANSON, MARY STEENBURGEN, AMBER TAMBLYN & BARBARA HALL JOIN SINGERS GRANT LEE PHILLIPS AND JILL SOBULE AT PRIMARY-WATCHING CONCERT FOR WESLEY CLARK

WHO: Ted Danson & Mary Steenburgen
Amber Tamblyn (nominated for a Golden Globe for her starring role in the new hit CBS series "Joan of Arcadia")
Barbara Hall (creator of "Joan of Arcadia" & co-creator of the hit series "Judging Amy")
Grant Lee Phillips (formerly lead singer of Grant Lee Buffalo and voted Rolling Stone's best male vocalist in 1995. His latest album "Virginia Creeper" is due out in February)
Jill Sobule ("I Kissed a Girl" and "Supermodel," the hit single featured in "Clueless")
The Like ("I'll Sit Here Waiting," the hit single featured on "Joan of Arcadia")
Wild Acoustic Chamber Orchestra

Plus the comedy team of Weinstein & Milder as MCs

WHAT: A New Hampshire primary-watching concert/fundraising party in support of Gen. Wesley Clark. The event, sponsored by C Company -- the Clark campaign's outreach organization for young professionals -- is one of 20 being held around the country on the night of the New Hampshire primary.

WHERE: The Knitting Factory
7021 Hollywood Blvd. (one block east of La Brea)
Hollywood, CA 90028

WHEN: Tuesday, Jan. 27, 2004
7:00 p.m.

WHY: With Clark a major contender in New Hampshire, polling among the top three candidates in most Feb. 3 primary states and the California primary only five weeks away, it's a great opportunity to cover the soaring momentum of the Clark campaign in Los Angeles and local reaction to the New Hampshire primary results.
