To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of reference on behalf of Ms. Gail Schiller, who served as the founding Editor-in-Chief of Touro Links, the print and online magazine of Touro College's Division of Graduate Studies. As the Dean of one of the Graduate Schools of Touro—the Graduate School of Jewish Studies—I had the privilege of working together with Ms. Schiller as she designed and implemented an exciting and masterfully produced magazine containing news, interviews, and in-depth feature stories about our diverse graduate programs.

I was most impressed by Gail's talented and spirited writing, her excellent editing skills, and her experienced and effective style of interviewing. She also is personable, conscientious, and a person of great integrity. She is a superb professional journalist, and will be an asset to the staff of any first-rate print or online medium.

I recommend Gail to you with enthusiasm.

Sincerely,

Dr. Michael A. Shmidman
Dean and Victor J. Selmanowitz Professor of Jewish History
